

Jesus through Middle Eastern Eyes

Half Day Bible Study: Saturday 24 May 8.45am - 11.30am at the Encounter Centre

Do you wish you understood Jesus better?

Kenneth Bailey spent forty years living and teaching the middle east, 20 of them as professor of new testament, some of them in peasant villages. His eye-opening commentaries on Jesus' teaching, grounded in rural, ancient village life, are regularly cited in both leading academic commentaries and in popular sermons and his lecture series on Jesus the theologian helped to turn my, and others', understanding of Jesus' teaching right-way up.
