There are some people (Cessationists) who believe that the Spiritual gifts are not for use today. Based on 1 Corinthians 13:8-12
 A Cessationist holds that the supernatural gifts for 1st century only.
 A Charismatic holds that gifts have continued down to today.

Questions What do you think of the 'Gifts of the Spirit'? What is your experience of them?

Ministries

Traditionally when people talked of 'The Ministry' they were talking about full time leadership of a church. Biblically, all Christians are ministers (service) 1 Peter 2:5-9

"It is pure invention that pope, bishop, priests, and monks are called the spiritual estate while princes, lords, artisans, and farmers are called to the temporal estate, this is deceit and hypocrisy." - Martin Luther

The division between priesthood and laity goes back to the Old Testament

Finding your spiritual gift, and role in the church. All based on desire to serve Jesus!

- 1. Ask God to lead you
- 2. What's on your heart, where is your burden? What 'bugs' you when its not being done properly?
- 3. Try to move in that area. Trial and error is allowed!
- 4. Is it effective?
- 5. Sense of fulfilment? Gifts need to be cultivated, accept training 2 Timothy 2:15

Role of Priest in the OT	Role of Christian in the NT
Set aside for God to use Exodus 29	Set aside for God to use 1 Peter 2:9 (special)
Bring God and people together Deut 21:5	Bring God and people together 2 Cor 5:8-21
Prayers and worship Leviticus 21:6, Numbers 6:23-24	Prayers and worship Acts 13:2, 16:25,
Access the presence of God Leviticus 24:3-4	Access the presence of God Hebrews 10:19-22
Sacrifice Numbers 18:1	Sacrifice Romans 12:1-2 Phil 2:17
Both the OT priests and ourselves have a High Priest (Jesus) Both are 'apart' people Numbers 18:20

Your ministry, is your area of service to God. 2 Timothy 4:5 Colossians 4:17 1 Peter 4:10

Our World has consumer thinking - how little can I give, to get most back. Christian thinking is opposite
 Ephesians 4:12 Key thing to remember, ministry is always others centred. John 13:2-5
